

MOCOPS MINUTES

Dec 6, 2008

The meeting was called to order at 1:30pm, at St Barnabas

Present was Karen Armstrong, Deborah Tatoian, Michelle Colombini, Debbie House

A big thank you to Nancy Stanze, Mary Ann Tatoian, Earl & Diane Chambers, Chris Sloan, Kelly Brown, Brad & Sue Schultz, Jim & June Leighninger for being on the Holiday committee .

At the Holiday party a sign-up sheet was past around to up-date our mailing list.

We will plan to have a meeting in Jan 2009, for the 2008 survivors going to DC.

Working on having MOCOPS patches made , have one design already, waiting for another. Hope to sell them at a later time.

In March Kathy McEntee would like organize another support group, all kinds of topics Were talked about at the last meeting.

April 18 & 19, is (Battle of the Badges) softball game at Osage Beach City Park , all Proceeds go to MOCOPS.

Deb Tatotian reminded everyone that all MO COPS board positions go up for re-election next year. If anyone is interested in applying for a position or getting more information on a position – please see any board member or contact us at any time.

The month of May we have the State Memorial in Jefferson and National Memorial in Washington DC. It is also the 25th anniversary of COPS.

Debbie House thanked the companies and people who donated to this years' Holiday party:

Wal Mart Kirkwood, Target Kirkwood, Message Envy, Chef Michael Damico & staff, Wal Mart Manchester, Table centerpieces from Creations by Karen, Kohl's Crestwood, Millenium Hotel For Room & brunch, Holiday Inn Airport for room & brunch, and Dave Gillette For audio visuals.

The meeting was then open if any one wished to speak . A toast was made to all Officers and the Cooking School Announced that they would be willing to hold a cooking class at their school –where all proceeds would go to MO COPS.

Mocops Holiday Party will follow meeting.

Meeting adjourned at 2pm
